The NDIS is currently available to people aged 12 to 28. From 1 July 2017, the NDIS will also be available to children aged 4-11 and by 2019, all age groups will be covered under the Scheme. In the meantime, people of all ages can still access services under the Individual Support Program (ISP) or Home and Community Care (HACC).

SEC Care is registered with National Disability Insurance Australia to deliver a selection of quality services through NDIS.
